Proposed conditional use is allowed under what section of the code? _____

Proposed conditional use is for: _____

How will surrounding properties be impacted by things such as noise, glare, odor, fumes, and vibration? How will this use be compatible with adjacent and other properties in the district as well as the County's Comprehensive Plan (you can attach a summary):

You must include a plan of the proposed site for the conditional use showing the location of all buildings (including dimensions), parking and loading areas, traffic access and traffic circulation, open spaces, landscaping, refuse and service areas, utilities, signs, yards, etc. (Please attach copy.) It is also recommended that you include pictures of the proposed site.

The conditional use process requires that surrounding property owners within 1,500 feet be notified of the requested conditional use. A notice must be published in the newspaper 15 days prior to a public hearing which will be held at the next regularly scheduled Planning & Zoning meeting. The Planning & Zoning Commission will make a recommendation to the Commissioners regarding the conditional use request. The Commissioners will then make the final decision at the next regularly scheduled commissioners meeting. Disclaimer: A permit for your conditional use, if granted, is subject to restrictive covenants and conditions, if any, of the subdivision in which your property is located. There is a fee of $365 due at the time of submitting your application. Your application will not be processed until this is paid in full.

By signing below, you acknowledge that you have the legal authority to submit the request for the property previously described. Additionally, you recognize that there is no guarantee for approval of your request.
